

Winning Team Rider

“Pays it Forward” for Charity

Wellington, FL – Suzanne Dansby-Phelps is a member of the Can/Am SSG team that won the recent stris.com Challenge of the competition. The Challenge of ca's is one of the highlight events during Florida's winter circuit by-Phelps was proud to be on the team. Riding for charity in such a ded and highly publicized event fectly with Dansby-Phelps com- give back to the community.

An accomplished international x competitor, Dansby-Phelps has set on making the team for the mpics. Dansby- Phelps has been ort listed for the USET dressage the past seven years and last year US team alternate in Germany

World Equestrian Games. ut her competitive dressage jour- by-Phelps has been known not competitor, but also as a contrib- ee years ago, Dansby-Phelps give all of her prize money win- to charity and she done just that. n, she has been a major contribu- umber of charities presently with f million dollars pledged in con- and giving her time and energy in umber of important charities. 'helps contributes not only to organizations such as the USET, to Animal Welfare, the Arts, t, and Health-such as the Breast earch Foundation that benefited proceeds of the Challenge of

"I am focused on my riding and goals", explains Dansby- Phelps, e grateful for the opportunities I give back and enrich others lives charity." Giving back or "paying it" is a way of life for Dansby- who has built an indoor riding ier alma mater, the University of (Sewanee), served on the Board charities, and made a difference ess charitable organizations over years. Dansby-Phelps sets an that all horse show competitors e. "If we each do our part" says helps, "we can truly make a e difference".

As a member of the Can/Am team 07 Challenge of the America's helps and Pas de Deux partner, ilner proved that doing your part e a lot of fun! Dansby- Phelps Grand Prix gelding, Kasper and ilner rode Diana Rose's stallion, to a medley of Michael Jackson "rocked the stadium". The musi-

Suzanne Dansby-Phelps on Kasper and Lisette Milner on Eminence ride t Can/Am team to raise funds for the Breast Cancer research Foundation (Sue Stic